

GENERATIONS OF FAITH - AN INTERRELIGIOUS ENCOUNTER

“Passing the Torch of Interreligious Dialogue: Experiences of the Past and Hopes for the Future”

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops’ Committee on Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs and the Pope John Paul II Cultural Center invite you to spend an evening with religious leaders and young adults from the Christian, Buddhist, Hindu, Jewish, Muslim and Sikh traditions, as they conclude a day of interreligious dialogue. Join them as they open their conversation to the public, sharing with you their common experiences and personal insights.

Panelists include: Most Rev. Tod Brown, Bishop of Orange, California; Mr. Anuttama Dasa, International Society of Krishna Consciousness; Dr. Manohar Singh Grewal, World Sikh Council- America Region; Dr. Ohun Chung Lee, Won Buddhist International; Most Rev. Felix Machado, Catholic Archbishop of Visai, India; Most Rev. Dennis Madden, Auxiliary Bishop of Baltimore; Most Rev. Francis Reiss, Auxiliary Bishop of Detroit; and Dr. Sayyid M. Syeed, Islamic Society of North America, along with 20 young adults from the Sikh, Muslim, Jewish, Hindu, Buddhist, and Christian traditions.

November 19, 2010

Reception: 6:00 P.M.

Panel Discussion: 7:00- 8:30 P.M.

John Paul II Cultural Center - 3900 Harewood Road NE, Washington DC 20017

All are welcome. For more information contact (202) 541-3020.

